

How Can I Become A Member of MEGUG?

To become a member, please visit our website at www.megug.org

Individual Member benefits include:

- Reduced rates for workshops, conferences and roundtables
- Access to membership list
- Advance notice for GIS events
- And more!

For detailed information on the benefits of becoming a Sustaining Member, please see the back of this pamphlet or visit our website.

Black & white, true color, and Color Infrared imagery simultaneously captured with a digital camera for the Town of Bar Harbor, ME in April 2008.
Sand Beach, Acadia National Park, ME.
Courtesy of Kappa Mapping, Inc.

*Without geography,
we're going nowhere.*

-Anonymous

MEGUG Sustaining Member Information

BRONZE LEVEL

Individuals and consultants should consider this level.

Benefits include:

- 1) A single, non-floating, regular voting membership in MEGUG
- 2) One additional attendee at MEGUG events at the respective member or student rate
- 3) Small size logo and link to their business website in the bronze portion of the sustaining members webpage on MEGUG's website
- 4) Bronze sustaining member recognition at MEGUG meetings

SILVER LEVEL

State agencies and nonprofit organizations including colleges and universities should consider this level.

Benefits include:

- 1) A single, non-floating, regular voting membership in MEGUG
- 2) Unlimited additional attendees at MEGUG events at the respective member or student rates
- 3) Medium size logo and link to their business website in the silver portion of the sustaining members webpage on MEGUG's website
- 4) Silver sustaining member recognition at MEGUG meetings

GOLD LEVEL

Corporations should consider this level.

Benefits include:

- 1) A single, non-floating, regular voting membership in MEGUG
- 2) Unlimited additional attendees at MEGUG events at the respective member or student rates
- 3) Large size logo and link to their business website in the gold portion of the sustaining members webpage on MEGUG's website
- 4) Gold sustaining member recognition at MEGUG meetings
- 5) Exhibit Space at the annual and fall MEGUG meetings
- 6) Distribution of promotional items at MEGUG meeting registration

Maine GIS User Group (MEGUG) is a non-profit organization that promotes awareness, coordinated development, and effective use of geographic information and related technologies. MEGUG focuses its efforts in the areas of policy, liaison and networking, research, education, and public relations. The Group facilitates discussion and exchange of information and ideas in these areas by hosting regular meetings, workshops, and roundtables open to both members and non-members.

Maine GIS User Group
60 Western Avenue
Suite 3 Box 274
Augusta, ME 04330

administration@megug.org
www.megug.org

Maine GIS User Group

PROGRAMS AND SERVICES

Who Are MEGUG Members?

- Mappers
- Cartographers
- GIS Services Providers & Software Developers
- Aerial Photographers & Photogrammetrists
- State, County & Municipal Officials
- Surveyors
- Engineers
- Geographers
- Utility Professionals
- Land Preservationists
- Educators & Students
- Anyone Interested in Mapping

Classified Lidar image of downtown Augusta, ME 2008. Courtesy of Maine Office of GIS.

What Are the Benefits of Being a Member of MEGUG?

- Support from and for your local GIS community
- Reduced rates for workshops, conferences and roundtables
- Access to membership list
- Networking opportunities with other GIS users in Maine
- Advance notice for GIS events
- Professional development tracking for certification including membership terms and CEUs
- Presentation and professional service opportunities

MMA Technology Conference, March 2009.

MMA Technology Conference, March 2009.

Angela Stokes (left), recipient in 2005, with her advisor, Dr. Sari Hou.

Undergraduate Poster Competition, April 2009.

Community Outreach Roundtables

Discussion forums are held throughout the state, bringing knowledge to all of the Maine GIS Community.

Conferences and Workshops

Meetings that allow professionals to come together to network and be introduced to new products, systems, techniques, and applications.

Angela Stokes Scholarship and Grant Program

Maine GIS User Group offers scholarships and grants to encourage and rewards students and educators interested in and utilizing GIS. The program is in memoriam of Angela Stokes, a previous winner of this scholarship who passed away February 1st, 2006.

Undergraduate Poster Contest

In cooperation with the University of Maine system, MEGUG sponsors a contest for undergraduates to showcase their knowledge of GIS and its services.